Homework assignment #1
Due: Wednesday, January 23.

1. What makes a good question in science? Please provide some examples.

2. Asking questions in class: What class experiences (reflect upon your high-school and college experiences) encouraged/ discouraged you from asking questions in class and why? What would you do as a prospective educator to encourage students to ask questions?